Department of Computer Science and Engineering

M.Tech (Computer Networks & Information Security) (SVEC-14)

PROGRAM EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

1. Graduates will pursue research career in advanced areas of Computer Networks, Network Security, Cloud computing and related areas.
2. Graduates will pursue professional career in reputed computer, IT and Government organizations as technology developers, project managers, software architects, System administrators, software analysts and consultants.
3. Graduates will demonstrate professional advancement through continuing education, effective communication, increased responsibility, leadership, team work with ethical code of conduct.