About 10 reputed publishers displayed their books on Engineering. They also exhibited books on Competitive examinations, GATE, and General Studies.

The publishers brought the latest and relevant books based on the subject areas recommended by members of faculty.

The book fair was spectacular. The students and faculty of institutions visited book stalls, and purchased books. Members of faculty also recommended a few books for the library.

The students and faculty expressed their happiness that they had an opportunity to browse the latest books related to their subjects.
