

ASSOCIATION OF COMPUTING MACHINERY (ACM)
(2017-18)

- In 2014, Sree Vidyanikethan Engineering College became an Institutional Member of ACM.
- Sree Vidyanikethan Engineering College ACM Student Chapter was started in March 2014 with registration of 30 student members and 1 Faculty Advisor.
- The purposes of the ACM Student Chapter are able to introduce students the benefits of professional organization. These benefits include regular meetings that encourage and enhance learning through exchange of ideas among students as well as between established professionals and students.
- Members of a student chapter may also take advantage of the activities and services provided by ACM, including the lectureship program, student programming and tutorial contests, and the publications program. Student chapters provide an obvious setting for the development and demonstration of leadership capabilities.
