Inaugural Function of "SVEC-SCRS Student Chapter"

Soft Computing Research Society (SCRS) promotes research in soft computing and allied areas, it is established in 2013 with its headquarter in Delhi, India. SCRS provides a common platform for the matured young and upcoming researchers to interact with the leading researchers of the world, working in the field of soft computing. It is also a forum for technical discussion on soft computing that provides an opportunity to bring together a large community of soft computing researchers. It is a collaborative program to provide support in imparting high quality technical education bridging the gap between academia and industry.

Department of Computer Science & Engineering, Sree Vidyanikethan Engineering College-SVEC, has initiated the process of establishment of the chapter in the month of February 2021 and it was consecutively approved on 22nd July 2021. The Chapter was started with 100 student members of CSE(AI) & CSE(DS) and faculty advisor.

SVEC-SCRS Student Chapter Sree Vidyanikethan Engineering College

VISION: To promote and provide support in imparting Soft Computing and its allied subjects effectively to the students with a capability to apply in different areas.

MISSION: Fostering and promoting research activities in the field of soft computing and related areas. Organize academic events, lectures, discussions, workshops, seminars, and conferences, for motivating and guiding the young researchers.
