Stevie Rose-An Entrepreneur sharing his views about EKAM

This meditative program is all the more poignant for India, given the context of war like atmosphere between China and our nation. The central idea behind Ekam world peace festival, Sri Krishnaji said, is that the collective violence in human mind becomes the trigger for all wars. No war is noble. All war is fought because of greed, hate and power hunger. And collective meditation and collective prayer intention has the power to infuse human consciousness with peace and dissolve tension and war. Krishnaji said, "Individual peace is the way to world peace."

Sri. Krishna Ji, Co-creator of EKAM expressing about Peace for Planet
